

Please Join Us For Red Hook's Arbor Day Celebration and 3rd Annual Spring Clean Up

Saturday, April 30, 2011 Red Hook Town Hall

Arbor Day Activities 10 am- 1 pm

-  The International Year of the Forest Proclamation
Assemblyman Marc Molinaro, Village Mayor Ed Blundell,
Chair of Tree Commission Nancy Guski
-  Free seedlings and Tree Owner's Manuals while they last
-  Tree planting at Town Recreation Park and St. Margaret's by LAM's environmental club, Who Care's?
-  Mill Road School winning Arbor Day Posters Displayed
-  Local Farmers A Taste of Red Hook – Gigi Market, Grieg Farm, Migliorelli
Farm, North Wind Farm
-  Hudson Valley Clean Energy
-  10% Challenge – compost bins
-  St. Margaret's Committee
-  Red Hook Village Police – Safety Information
-  Artist, Kevin Rifenburg – woodcut prints of The Old Baxter Farm Oak Tree
-  Live Music – Joe Tobin and Friends
-  Raffles, prizes....and lot's more!

Clean Up Schedule

- 10:00 am Meet at Fisher Center at Bard to clean up Tivoli
Bays Trail
- 1:00 pm Meet at Red Hook Town Hall to get road assignment, supplies and safety information
- 1:30 – 4:30 Clean up the Town!
- 5:00 Return to Town Hall to drop off supplies, wash up, share a meal and enjoy live music!

To register or for more information contact: Organizer, Robert McKeon at mckeonandny@yahoo.com or 845-399-4582, Red Hook Councilwoman, Micki Strawinski at mstrawinsk@aol.com or 914-474-3064
or Town Clerk, Sue McCann at 845-758-4606

Organized by the Town of Red Hook Tree Preservation Commission
Contacts: Rose Zengen 876-1422 and Nancy Guski 757-5121