Red Hook Police Department and Dutchess County Sheriff's Continue Burglary Investigation

The Red Hook Police Department reports that there have been several commercial burglaries that have occurred in the Village of Red Hook during the overnight hours of Tuesday night, March 31, 2009 into Wednesday, April 1, 2009. During the overnight hours the suspect or suspects broke into several commercial businesses and stole an undisclosed amount of cash before leaving the scenes. All residents in Red Hook are to be alert of any suspicious activity and to be conscious of safety measures for their homes and businesses. This investigation is a joint investigation between the Red Hook Police Department and the Dutchess County Sheriff's Office. All residents are urged to report any suspicious activity to the Red Hook Police Department or the Dutchess County Sheriff's Office.

The Red Hook Police Department can be reached at (845) 758-4710 or (845) 758-6780, while the Dutchess County Sheriff's office can be reached at (845) 486-3800
